Please see Edition 39 of the Careers and HE Bulletin below. Please read it – it's your life and one of these activities could potentially change it for the better!

Please note: we cannot vouch for the quality of the courses/events charging fees. You can often find free alternatives with research but if an event/course charging fees is of interest, speak to your parents and perhaps they can help you decide whether it is worth any additional costs. Remember you cannot miss classes for these events.

UCAS applications: Our applicants are already receiving offers from universities. Some of you may receive emails with invitations or information requests directly from universities (i.e. not through UCAS). Please check your "spam/junk" regularly as some of these are important emails and could be classed as spam or junk and automatically transferred to the junk folder. If you have been sent something you need help with, e.g. interview practice because your university or employer (apprenticeships) want to interview you, please do let us know if you need support – speak to The Careers Department.

The Telegraph Media Literacy Programme. Open to 16-18-year-olds, the programme will run for four weeks, beginning on Tuesday 3 March 2026.

Deadline: Thursday 26 February. Sessions will be with a range of Telegraph journalists from departments including news, sports, beauty, music, and social media and take place online from 4.00pm to 5.10pm every Tuesday (you must not miss lessons). At the end of the programme, each student will receive a Telegraph Media Literacy Journalism Certificate. For details and applications, see here.

The Yale Young Global Scholars (YYGS) Programme. This is a summer academic enrichment and leadership programme that brings together outstanding high school students from around the world for intensive two-week sessions on Yale's campus in New Haven. The regular decision deadline for applications is Wednesday 7 January 2026. For more details and applications, see here.
