Please see Edition 41 of the Careers and HE Bulletin below. It is an Apprenticeships special to mark National Apprenticeship Week! Please read it – it's your life and one of these activities could potentially change it for the better!

Please note: we cannot vouch for the quality of the courses/events charging fees. You can often find free alternatives with research but if an event/course charging fees is of interest, speak to your parents and perhaps they can help you decide whether it is worth any additional costs. Remember you cannot miss classes for these events.

National Apprenticeship Week (NAW) 2026 is THIS week. It brings together businesses and apprentices across the country to shine a light on the positive impact that apprenticeships make on individuals, businesses and the wider economy. This week's Bulletin highlights some great apprenticeship opportunities! Also see here.

TV programme on degree apprenticeships. The 30-minute programme is an invaluable resource to help introduce degree apprenticeships to Sixth Form students and their parents. It covers what a Degree Apprenticeship is, which ones are available and compares a Degree Apprenticeship to a traditional university experience. See here.

Morgan Stanley Apprenticeships. These programmes are delivered in partnership with Multiverse and are designed for you to start and grow your career, whether in research, operations, human capital management or another division. For more information and to see the apprenticeships available, see here.

Applications for EY's 2026 Apprenticeship Programmes are now live! These opportunities are perfect for anyone looking to launch a career in business, finance, or technology straight out of school or college. You will dive straight into real client work, earning while you learn, and develop your skills with the support of a dedicated career coach. For more details and applications, see here.
